

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Advisory Committee

Purpose of the Committee

Based on the Board goals for a governing year, the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee will act as the advisory body for AMBA in relation to issues of equity, diversity, and inclusion. The intent of this work is to help AMBA develop and maintain an environment where we recognize the dignity and uniqueness of the individual, and where we meaningfully leverage equity and diversity in our staff, Board of Directors, membership, and community.

Committee Type

Advisory Committee

Scope

- Advise in the identification, development, and implementation of mechanisms and where required, policy, to ensure there are no groups excluded from our Association.
- Research and recommend to the Governance Committee changes required within AMBA's culture, practices, policies, and processes for the purpose of removing systemic racism, homophobia, sexual harassment and other forms of oppression from the Association.
- Recommend future initiatives that will help AMBA develop and understanding of, and commitment to, inclusion, diversity, and equity.
- Research and recommend educational resources and materials to the Board of Directors and CEO for ongoing Diversity, Inclusion and Equity learning.
- Develop a five-year "Action Plan" for consideration by AMBA's Board and CEO via the Governance Committee that outlines recommended updates, improvements and/or changes to existing policy or practices relating to issues of systemic racism, discrimination, and/or oppression.
- Act as the Board's champion for changes to AMBA's culture that promote a bias-free environment and a fully welcoming association for all staff, members, Board members and community.
